

Name : Domaine Saint Andrieu

Appellation : A.O.C. - Côtes de Provence - Red 2011
Selected by « le guide des Meilleurs Vins de France » 2013
- RVF

Grape varieties: Syrah 70%, Mourvèdre 30%

Soil : Limestone hills, cool climate area at 380m.

Vineyard area: 1.18 Ha

Date of harvest: September 2011

Weather conditions: Rainy spring followed by a dry summer with morning dews and fresh nights. Soft summer.

Yield: 48Hl/Ha – Production: 11 000 cols

Oenologist: Pierre Niezborala - Brignoles

Winemaking: Traditional winemaking of destemmed grapes and very slightly crushed. Half of the production is aged in oak barrels for 9 months.

Description: Quintessential Provence grape varieties (Syrah, Mourvèdre) give this wine a delicate, refined bouquet. The palate is balanced and well-rounded, with supple tannins and floral notes underpinned by dark fruit and spicy flavours. Perfect with grilled dishes and white meats.

Cellaring: Can be drunk right now or be kept around 3 years.

Alcohol : 13°
